

When HealthCare Reform goes into full effect starting January 1, 2014 no healthplan, either sold privately or through the exchanges, will be able to exclude patients because of any pre-existing conditions they may have. Insurers also wont be able to cancel plans/coverage if you get sick.

For more information you can log on to healthcare.gov .